PROGRAM ITINERARY

Bongkasa Balinese Life Experience: Morning departs for village experience at Bongkasa, shorth walking at the rice field & village, purification ceremony and bathing at Taman Mumbul temple, and experience of Balinese life activities at Rumah Bali followed by Lunch.

When you first arrive at the village, the locals will warmly welcome you with a traditional drink called "Daluman" and a Balinese snack at "wantilan"; the Balinese Meeting Hall, located right next to paddy fields. You will see how the farmers plow the field with the help of cows and the planting technique widely used in Bali.

Next we will visit a Taman Mumbul temple a spiritual tourist destination in Bali, and it is a sacred place sanctified by the Sangeh and surrounding communities. It has a big pond like a lake with clear water. The water sources are from 11 major springs and dozens of small springs around the lake. After Melukat, you will enjoy a food offering blessed by Pemangku (Local Priest). Visiting a local's houses is a part of the village life experience. We will explain each part of the Balinese house and how it's built. This is the right moment to dig more about Balinese Architecture and see how it reflects on their daily life. You will also learn the hierarchy and the relationship between God, the Environment, and humans. Move to the Balinese Kitchen area called 'Paon.' You will amaze by the antique yet traditional stuff that the Balinese use for cooking. They will also show you how to make a famous Balinese snack made from rice, also used as an offering. Before Lunch, you will do a simple cooking class on making one of the popular dishes from the Island, "Sate Lilit" (satay).

Note: suitable for all ages

Authentic Bali: Morning departs to Bangli Regency for visit Taman Ayun Temple. Taman Ayun Temple is a Hindu temple and garden complex located in the Mengwi district in the Badung Regency. The historic temple was built at the order of I Gusti Agung Putu in 1634 and served as the Mengwi kingdom's main temple. Visitors can enjoy exploring the various footpaths, shrines and splendid courtyards within the spacious complex which is surrounded by a broad moat. There is also a serene garden area with lush trees and tranquil lotus-blossom filled ponds. Next, we will continue the program to Ulundanu temple. Located in Bedugul, Indonesia, Pura Ulun Danu Bratan is a popular tourist attraction with many different activities. The most popular is visiting Ulun Danu Beratan Temple which is one of nine surrounding Bali Island. It is one of the most important temples for the Balinese, Hindu people. It consists of five compounds of temples and one Buddhist Stupa. Afterward, we will lunch at local restaurant in Jatiluwih rice terrace. Jatiluwih Rice Terrace is located about 700 meters above sea level in the lush, green highlands of Bali, in the Penebel district of the Tabanan Regency. The secluded rural village and farming area enjoys a cool climate and encompasses over 600 hectares of land situated at the scenic base of the Batukaru Mountain. Visitors can enjoy the fresh mountain air and hikes through the exotic landscape comprised of flowing rivers and verdant terraces which implement a traditional irrigation system. In June 2012 Jatiluwih Village, along with four other areas in the Subak landscape was named a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site. Back to hotel in Nusa Dua.

Note: suitable for all ages

Ubud Funtastic: Morning departs to Ubud for visit Ubud Monkey Forest. The Ubud Monkey Forest lies within the village of Padangtegal, which owns it. The village's residents view the monkey forest as an important spiritual, economic, educational, and conservation centre. There are many points of interest for guests to explore. Other than around 700 monkeys, guests can also see 186 species of trees in 12.5 hectares of forest. There are three temples onsite which visitors can view from the surrounding areas as the inside is for the prayer community only. After Monkey Forest, we will move to Tegalalang to visit Alas Harum for Lunch (1x main course + 1x beverages) and Swing program. The Swing offers a scenic swing over the Tegalalang rice terrace. This adrenaline-fueled adventure features an aerial sweep from 10m to 78m above the ground in an old-fashioned swing. Back to hotel in Nusa Dua.

Note - Swing program: Pregnant women, children under 7th years old, people with history of heart disease or have a congenital disease is prohibited to do the swing activities

Mambal Ebike + Healthy Lunch: In appointed time departs to mambal village for visit e-bike program. On this 2 hour cycling trip with electric bikes south of the busy center of Ubud you ride through small, quaint villages where you see the unique Subak irrigation system at work, go past rivers and ride through its rustic, lush surroundings, guided by one of our experienced local guides. While cycling you will see gorgeous rice paddies with local farmers at work, dams & waterfalls, we make a stop at the Ayung river, pass by Bali Green School. After E-bike program you will enjoy your healthy lunch at Sakti Dining Room™ by Fivelement (3 Course Set Lunch Menu). A menu consisting of raw vegan options and lightly-prepared plant-based dishes are served in the Sakti Dining Room which offers views of a tranquil lotus pond and the Ayung River. Back to hotel in Nusa Dua.

Note: suggested for fit persons only

Secret of Bali Jeep Tour: Drive to the real Heart of Bali, out of tourist's crowds!

You will pass through little villages where children will say "Hallo!" to you, crossing mountains full of terrace rice fields and standing up inside the car as we will open for you the upper window, letting you take amazing photos from that higher point of view!

You will discover the amazing fabrication of Balinese Ceramics, not entering into the shop (unless you want to visit it!). A Balinese family will invite you to have a Coffee or Tea with handmade Balinese sweets while you learn about the structure of Balinese houses and the lifestyle of Balinese people. After that, you will visit an authentic and ancient Temple in Bali and, driving through little villages, you will arrive to your lunch point with the very astonishing rice field views of Jatiluwih. Finally transfer back to your hotel in Nusa Dua.

Includes: Coffee break & lunch, all entrance fees and professional 4x4 driver-guide,

Note: suitable for all ages

Uluwatu Kecak Dance + Dinner in Jimbaran: In appointed time (early evening) meet with our guide for your transfer to Uluwatu Temple. Bali's spiritual pillars consist of 6 important temples, one of which is the Uluwatu Temple. Set at the edge of a high cliff and offering stunning views the Indian Ocean, the temple is located in Uluwatu, Indonesia. The temple's grandeur architecture, the beautiful scenery, the lovely ancient statues and the Kecak dance performance (Included) make this site an attractive tourist area. Tari Kecak Uluwatu is an open-air dance performance which takes place on a stage located on the cliffs at Uluwatu Temple. This Balinese dance combined with the natural beauty of the surrounding cliffs makes for a unique and enjoyable cultural experience. After Kecak performance, our guest will move to Jimbaran, for dinner on the seaside of Jimbaran Beach. Afterward, back to hotel in Nusa Dua.

Note: suitable for all ages
